O poeta Chiado (Novas investigaÁ!Á´es sobre a sua vida e escriptos) (Portuguese Edition) Alberto Pimentel

As relações de amizade entre os vivos e os mortos são menos quebradiças e ephémeras do que as dos vivos uns com outros. E a razão é fácil de explicar: quem vai, não volta. Os mortos não falam, não intrigam, não atraíam, não desmerecem, por isso, da estima e consideração em que uma vez os tomamos. Affeiçoa-se a gente a um escriptor, a um maestro, a um pintor ou a um estatuário, que morreu ha muitos annos ou ha longos seculos, e não deixamos apagar nunca a lampada do seu culto: colleccionamos-lhe as obras sem olhar a dinheiro, por mais raras que sejam; conservamol-as em grande veneração como thesouros que um avaro aferrolha a sete chaves; e estamos sempre promptos a combater de ponto em branco pela gloria e belleza de suas producções, quando apparece algum zoilo a menosprezal-as com azedume. E se nas relações com os vivos fazemos selecção do character d'elles para estabelecer convivencia e amizade, pouco nos importa a condição e procedimento dos mortos quando os estimamos em suas creações artisticas ou literarias com intransigente fanatismo
