Advertisements for a spouse lead five couples into unique romances. Cinda's well-intentioned friends set her up as a mail-order bride. Emily hopes answering an ad for a wife will bury her problems, but it leads to disappointment. Maura finds her intended wanted help in his store more than he wanted a wife—especially one with a secret disability. Lena, a widowed mother, places an ad for a husband to help farm her land. In a marriage by proxy, Daughtry flees an overprotective father to the arms of a stranger. Is faith alone strong enough to make marriage between strangers into true love?
