Increasingly, seasoned business leaders (often called “Halftimers”) want to use their skills and experience to make a difference for the Lord in this world. And the obvious place for doing so is through their church. But many feel stuck, not sure exactly who to approach or where to begin. At the same time, pastors and church leaders long for their churches to make an even greater impact for Christ in their communities and beyond, but lack the seasoned leaders and ministry model needed to make it happen. What’s desperately needed is a clear game plan to unite these two groups of people to unleash the kingdom power that such a partnership contains. Unlimited Partnership, a unique two-books-in-one read for marketplace leaders and pastors, is that game plan. Experienced businessman Lloyd Reeb tells marketplace leaders how to find active service roles within their church. Veteran pastor Bill Wellons helps colleagues reach church members anxious to be involved with ministry.
