The profound author of TAROT ReVISIONED, Leigh J. McCloskey has created the second part of the "In the Splendor" series. Leigh explores the romance and heartache of Adam and Eve. The artwork in the book is featured on the facing pages as the story unfolds nearby. The book is 8-3/8" x 10-7/8". In this beautiful story we discover the profound multidimensional love affair, passionate union and ancient depth from which Universal Adam and his beloved Eve, the immaculate daughter of Sophia, give birth to infinite worlds and numberless generations. This work reclaims the stories of Genesis for the storyteller and invites us to remember our deepest knowing and soul felt yearnings. Its power and inspiration gifts us with the freedom to explore ourselves as mythic and vast beings. It also reveals that the doorway to mythic revelation and true self-knowledge opens through experience, creative innocence, imaginative adventure and intimacy. Its vibrancy and meaning restores the power of the sacred feminine and woman and its vision helps soothe the troubled soul of man. It generously seeks to balance the rift between the religious and secular models of mind by re-establishing the third way, the sacred. The beautiful images in the book all come from the Hieroglyph of the Human Soul, a vast multidimensional painting that covers the floor, walls and ceiling of McCloskey's studio at his home. Adam Reborn & Eve Restored: A Romance in Two Parts, is an invitation to return home, to remember our origins, and to be restored to the yes in our inner hearts and natures. We believe this book does this beautifully and we hope you agree.
