The superhero team, Archer and Armstrong are back ... way back in the Bronze Age!

Achilles, hero of the Trojan War, pops up beside Armstrong on a stool in a New York bar. That can only mean one thing: Armstrong's brother, the Timewalker, is at it again. It's probably not a good idea having an ancient Greek psychopath in period costume running around loose in New York. And Armstrong knows how to get him back where he belongs. The only problem is he'll have to get the Greek troublemaker back to England and a Stonehenge portal that is really the only way to do time travel. At least that's the plan until the quarrelsome, shape-shifting Sect appears. Now Archer and Armstrong are going to have to do battle with Druids, Moon Maidens, and fanged sea monsters if they want to send Achilles back to the Bronze Age.

Acclaimed author Leigh Knight's Greeks Bearing Gifts is a present no fan of the Archer and Armstrong series will be able to resist.
