Another uproarious caper in the Horrible Harry series, and this time Harry's not the one breaking the rules!

Everyone in Room 3B knows that if Miss Mackle sees you playing with toys at your desk, she'll confiscate them for her June Box. So when a substitute teacher catches good girl Song Lee with a pink origami pig, into the June Box it goes. The problem is that this origami was to be a birthday present for Song Lee's grandmother. So Song Lee does the unthinkable: she breaks into the June Box to free her pig. Now Harry, Doug, and the rest of the kids have to work together--before they all wind up in horrible trouble!

David Yoon:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library in order to make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that examining is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Horrible Harry and the June Box can make you feel more interested to read.
