Contro gli incappucciati della finanza (Castelvecchi RX) (Italian Edition) Federico Caffè, Giuseppe Amari

Per la prima volta un volume raccoglie tutti gli articoli di Federico Caffè apparsi su «Il Messaggero» di Roma e «L'Ora» di Palermo nel periodo che va da metà degli anni Settanta sino alla vigilia della sua scomparsa, nell'aprile del 1987. Una raccolta unica, in cui è possibile cogliere la straordinaria lungimiranza e capacità di analisi economica e finanziaria di Caffè, oggi tra i più riscoperti studiosi del secolo scorso. Gli scritti proposti in questo volume rappresentano la collaborazione più duratura che Federico Caffè ebbe nel campo pubblicistico, nella funzione di «consigliere del cittadino», come lui stesso amava definirsi. Questa raccolta si avvale inoltre di alcuni saggi critici relativi alla mancata ricostruzione del secondo dopoguerra: un disegno di programmazione democratica e partecipata dal basso a cui il professore dette un importante contributo come capo di gabinetto di Meuccio Ruini, ministro nel governo Parri. Una straordinaria intuizione che fu però messa da parte per far spazio al disegno neoliberalista e conservatore di «liberalizzazione senza programmazione», un modello di sviluppo economico di cui oggi l'Italia paga le conseguenze
