Tony DeLuca has to get to New York, no matter what. His older sister is getting married, and it won't matter to her if the entire East Coast is shut down if it means she's short a groomsman. She's the only reason he's willing to make the trip home to face a father who's never forgiven him for wasting a perfectly good degree to become a firefighter. And that's only the tip of the iceberg when it comes to everything about Tony that his father will never accept.

Dominic Tricoli's living his dream. He's spent the past few years working to mesh his business degree and love of the outdoors into a thriving company, providing team-building retreats for some of the country's largest corporations. Unfortunately there's a price to pay for happiness, and having someone to come home to at night is the sacrifice Dominic made.

When Dominic overhears Tony's plight, he's drawn to help the man get to New York City. Little does Dominic know that one kind gesture will awaken a side of him he's ignored for far too long. Against his better judgment, he gives in to his desires and Tony's advances. Just for the night.

When destiny steps in, giving him another chance with the charismatic man who saved his hide, Tony's willing to do whatever it takes to earn Dominic's forgiveness and understanding. There may not be forever, but Tony's determined to enjoy every single minute he's given with Dominic.

You can't fight fate. Whatever's meant to happen eventually will.
