Alzheimer's is a terrible disease affecting thousands of families in the world. In this children's picture book, a young boy's grandfather moves in with them but is not the same man that the boy knows. Confused at first, the little boy attempts to reconnect with the Grandpa he knows. When he finds out that this is not possible, the boy vows to always love his Grandfather and to take care of him too. This is a story of true love and devotion.
