What choices will you make when your back is against the wall? “The realist streets of Atlantic City, New Jersey. Where the weather is just like the people, temperamental. Where rappers never come up and kingpins always go to jail. Where all rats swear their loyalty meanwhile their name keeping popping up on green sheets. A city where your new baby mom’s is probably your man’s old baby moms. A place where it’s what’s up to be high and dumb and stupid to try to rise above it all. Yep, AC aka 609 was where I was born and raised. Jersey made me but wouldn’t break me.” Kennedy can’t seem to catch a break! Between the murder of her long time boyfriend at the hands of her lover and losing her job, she doesn’t know how to cope. With drugs and alcohol right within her reach, it’s easy to just numb the pain. But numbing the pain comes with consequences she can’t even fathom. So when her sister offers her a “job” with the company she works for, under the guise of touching so much easy money her problems would vanish. Kennedy hopped right on it. It seemed all good until it was all wrong. Nobody is whom they seem to be. Who can Kennedy really trust?
