Wines of the Pacific Northwest Lisa Shara Hall

Wines of the Pacific Northwest explores the history, wine laws, terroir, viticulture, vinification, and producers of Washington and Oregon. It identifies and describes the main wine regions within each state, and features profiles of the main wine producers. There are detailed maps of all the wine-producing areas and wineries, and an in-depth exploration of key influences on the wines—with contemporary issues such as Biodynamics, organic practices, and foreign investment accorded special attention.
