- And MUCH More

Also, check out these benefits of coloring books:

- You can do it alone or with a group of friends — or even with your kids.
- Coloring feeds the creative side of your mind.
- You can spend as much or as little time as you'd like creating your masterpiece.
- There aren't any rules. You can color inside the lines, outside the lines, in one color, in dozens of colors. And you can have multiple masterpieces in the works at once. No one says you have to finish coloring one picture before you start the next one.
- You get to be a kid again for a little while — no stress, no responsibilities, no judgment. The final result doesn't have to be perfect, either. If you like it, that's perfection enough.
- You may discover something about your adult self as you lay color to paper.
- The coloring is a calming activity. People often feel less stressed after they spend some time coloring because it allows them to focus on something other than their day-to-day concerns. Some folks use coloring as a way to unwind before bedtime.
- Pursuing creative activities in your free time may lead to improved performance at work.
- Coloring pages for adults range from serene to silly, including nature scenes, detailed animal drawings, geometric designs, and cartoon art.
- You can hang your finished artwork on the fridge (or frame it and hang it on the wall) for all of your friends and relatives to see.
