Discover the authentic Jesus worshipped by many, but truly known by few. Jesus is worshipped, revered, admired, liked, disliked, and accused. His words and life have been injected into political debates and personal philosophy. Countries have waged brutal wars in His name. Writers have fictionalized Him and His followers. Artists have tried to capture His divinity or portray Him in biblical episodes. Jesus' followers circle the planet, yet many rely on widely held beliefs and myths regarding who Jesus really was. Who was He really? What did He really say? What miracles did He perform and why? Who were his friends and enemies? The Ultimate Guide to Jesus draws from the ultimate guide... the Bible. See for yourself how Jesus confronts political, religious, and social establishments; all leading up to the "last week" of his natural life... and after.
